Your Health...

Have you ever heard someone say, "I have insurance, but I don't know how it works in a disaster situation"?

During a public health emergency or natural disaster, Medicare beneficiaries may be unfamiliar with how Medicare, Medicare Advantage, or Prescription Drug Plans may cover urgently needed medical care. If you live in an area that's been declared an emergency or disaster by the President, Governor, or the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), the usual rules for your medical care may change for a short time.

To help answer questions on health care and insurance issues, the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) provides a publication entitled "Getting Medical Care and Prescription Drugs in a Disaster or Emergency Area." This four-page fact sheet includes guidance on seeing doctors or other providers, obtaining your prescription drugs, getting dialysis treatments, receiving chemotherapy or other cancer treatments, replacing a lost Medicare card or Medicare plan membership card, and replacing lost or damaged durable medical equipment or supplies. For a copy of this informative publication, you may call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). It is also available online at www.medicare.gov. Select the "Forms, Help & Resources" then click on "Publications" and enter 11377.

In addition, Medicare reminds individuals on dialysis or kidney transplant patients to do the following:

- 1) register with the local emergency management office for special priority status if water or power is lost, and
- 2) make sure their dialysis center has a current street address and phone number for contact purposes. They have also provided a booklet entitled "Preparing for Emergencies: A Guide for People on Dialysis found online through the Kidney Community Emergency Response Coalition at www.kcercoalition.com.

Membership Meeting

Our next membership luncheon meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 18th, 12:00 noon, at Village Park, 11700 Pierson Road, Gym 1.

After a brief business meeting, our Entertainment Chair, Sunny Meyer will present a refined mixture of mind magic and comedy in the person of De La Mente, Master of Mentalism. Has anyone ever read your mind? Have you ever picked a page in a book and was told what it said on that page? Even the deepest skeptics in the audience will wonder how this world class mind reading act is performed. From the minute that De La Mente walks on stage, you will be entertained and enthralled. From laughter to astonishment, you will marvel at the wonders of the human mind. He can tell what you are thinking, he will make you believe. That is why they call him, De La Mente. Trip leaders will be on hand to take your reservations in rooms 1A-1B at the rear of the Gym. See you all there.

Did You Ever Wonder ?

Why do supermarkets make the sick walk all the way to the back of the store to get their prescriptions while healthy people can buy cigarettes at the front?

Why do people order double cheeseburgers, large fries, and a diet coke?

Why do banks leave vault doors open and then chain the pens to the counters?

Why do we leave cars worth thousands of dollars in our driveways and put our useless junk in the garage?

Why the sun lightens our hair, but darkens our skin?

Why can't women put on mascara with their mouth closed?

Why don't you ever see the headline 'Psychic Wins Lottery'?

Why is 'abbreviated' such a long word?

Why is it that doctors and attorneys call what they do 'practice'?

Why is lemon juice made with artificial flavoring, and dish washing liquid made with real lemons?

Why is the man who invests all your money called a broker?

Why is the time of day with the slowest traffic called rush hour?

Why isn't there mouse-flavored cat food?

Why didn't Noah swat those two mosquitoes?

Why do they sterilize the needle for lethal injections?

Why don't they make the whole plane out of that indestructible black box stuff that is used on airplanes?

Why don't sheep shrink when it rains?

Why do they call the airport the terminal if flying is so safe?

Why? That's a good question!

Just Married...
FOR 55 YEARS

Senior Bumper Sticker Of The Month

T'was The Night Of Thanksgiving

T'was the night of Thanksgiving, but I just couldn't sleep.

I tried counting backwards, I tried counting sheep.

The leftovers beckoned, the dark meat and white.

But I fought the temptation, with all of my might.

Tossing and turning, with much anticipation.

The thought of a snack became sheer infatuation.

So I raced to the kitchen, flung open the door,

And gazed at the fridge, full of goodies galore.

I gobbled up turkey, and buttered potatoes,

Pickles and carrots, beans and tomatoes.

I felt myself swelling, so plump and so round.

'til all of a sudden, I rose off the ground.

I crashed through the ceiling, floating into the sky,
With a mouthful of pudding, and a handful of pie.

But I managed to yell as I soared past the trees

Happy eating to all, pass the cranberries, please!

May your stuffing be tasty, may your turkey be plump.

May your potatoes and gravy have nary a lump.

May your yams be delicious, may your pies take the prize

And may your Thanksgiving dinner stay off of your thighs

The Perfect Thanksgiving Turkey Recipe

Here is a recipe that also uses popcorn as a stuffing. When I found this recipe, I thought it was perfect for people like me, who are just not sure how to tell when poultry is thoroughly cooked, but not dried out. Give this a try:

1 8-15 lb. turkey 1 cup melted butter

1 cup stuffing (Pepperidge Farm Is Good)

1 cup uncooked popcorn (Orville Redenbacher's Low Fat)

Salt and pepper to taste

Preheat oven to 350 degrees.

Brush turkey well with melted butter.

Salt, and pepper to taste.

Fill cavity with stuffing and popcorn (uncooked).

This is critical. Place in baking pan with neck end towards the back of oven.

Listen for the popping sounds.

When the turkey blows the oven door open and flies across the room, it's done.

And you thought I didn't cook

AGATHA CHRISTIE'S THE MOUSETRAP

The Mousetrap

Agatha Christies whodunit is the world's longest running play. The secret to its longevity is a curious mixture of 1950's drawing room comedy and murder mystery. Everyone is trapped in the guesthouse. They have no means of contacting the outside world, and the murderer is among them. No one is quite what they seem. For an afternoon of theatrical excellence, join us on Saturday, November 7 for this icon at the Maltz Jupiter Theatre. Throw in dinner at Paddy Mac's in Palm Beach Gardens for that unique Irish Pub experience, and you have all the makings for a rare day, indeed.

Pick up will be at the parking lot of The Lake Wellington Professional Building, 12230 Ken Adams Way (formerly Country Club Drive), Wellington. Our coach will spot at 11:45am and depart at 12:00noon Member cost will be $47.00 pp., guests $82.00 pp. Please make checks payable to The Wellington Seniors Club. The Ft. Lauderdale Christmas Pageant features a festive opening scene with familiar carols in a turn-of-the-century setting, a concert of inspirational contemporary songs, and a musical drama of the nativity and life of Christ. This year's Pageant, on Sunday, December 6th, includes a spectacular snow-filled winter wonderland (watch for the falling snowflakes, not just on stage, but in the audience as well!) One of the most celebrated aspects of the Pageant is the role played by young people, featuring hundreds of children and students from weeks-old babies (in the starring role!) to high school seniors who've been part of the Pageant all their lives. Following the Pageant, enjoy dinner at The Banana Boat in Boynton Beach to complete this exciting afternoon. The cost will be $51.00 pp., for members and $86.00 pp., for guests. Our coach will spot at 11:45 and will depart at 12:00noon. Pick up will be at the Lake Wellington Professional Building parking lot at 12230 Ken Adams Way (formerly Country Club Drive). Please make checks payable to the Wellington Seniors Club. The Will Rogers Follies

The Will Rogers Follies is a musical with a book by Peter Stone, lyrics by Betty Comden and Adolph Green, and music by Cy Coleman. It focuses on the life and career of famed humorist and performer Will Rogers, using as a backdrop the Ziegfeld Follies, which he often headlined, and describes every episode in his life in the form of a big production number. The Rogers character also performs rope tricks in between scenes. The revue contains snippets of Rogers' famous homespun style of wisdom and common sense and tries to convey the personality of this quintessentially American figure whose most famous quote was "I never met a man I didn't like." Combine this performance at The Maltz Jupiter Theatre on Saturday, January 23rd, 2016 with dinner at the Waterway Café in Palm Beach Gardens and you have the makings of a wonderful days outing. The cost will be $47.00 pp., for members and $ 82.00 pp., for guests.

Pick up will be at The Lake Wellington Professional Building at 12230 Ken Adams Way (formerly Country Club Drive). Our coach will spot at 11:45am and depart at 12:00noon. Please make checks payable to The Wellington Seniors Club. For reservations, call...
